Where a child is at immediate risk of serious harm, any adult present should call

999. Thereafter, the safeguarding officer should be contacted as soon as is reasonably practicable.

Where there is a safeguarding concern but no immediate risk of serious harm, the adult who has heard or witnessed this concern should consult with the safeguarding officer as soon as practicable and by no later than the end of that same day.

Where any child makes a disclosure relation to harm or abuse to an adult, it is important for that adult to:

- Listen calmly and carefully, showing that their views are taken seriously -
Provide an appropriate and honest level of reassurance
- Avoid interrogating children and asking, probing, intrusive and/or leading questions. -
Avoid making false promises regarding secrets and confidentiality with the child (because any concern of abuse/harm must be shared with the safeguarding officer and any subsequent safeguarding referral)
- Make a confidential written record of the discussion either during the discussion or immediately afterwards. The records should include the key details of the disclosure together with any relevant times, dates, places and people concerned, Audi and video recordings of children making disclosures should be avoided.
- Refer all relevant information to the safeguarding officer as soon as practicable afterwards, and by no later than the end of the day.

Upon receipt of any safeguarding concern, the safeguarding officer shall consult with any other relevant persons and will make any appropriate referrals to the relevant authorities, such as the applicable local authority children's services department.

Engaging in criminal activity concerning a child

This must be raised in the first instance with the safeguarding officer (or where this is not appropriate, a different senior member of the organisation) so that the next appropriate steps may be agreed and actioned. We recognise that there could be circumstances where a person may need to report a matter that has taken place in a setting outside of the person's engagement with the company.

Usually, any appropriate steps following a safeguarding referral in respect of an individual connected to the company will include either:

- Further initial enquiries
- Escalation to the applicable local authority children's services department for assessment and/or the police for investigation
- Instigation of any appropriate disciplinary, formal investigation processes and

- suspension of any person concerned within Rugby all-stars
- A referral to the disclosure and barring service, disclosure Scotland or access Northern Ireland, or any other relevant regulatory bodies.

Any person within Rugby all-stars who has allegations made against them shall be informed properly in a formal meeting of the particulars of the allegations and the relevant next steps which shall be taken. Such a meeting should ordinarily be held by the safeguarding office. On certain occasions, such a meeting may not be convened until this has been approved by any authorities involved (such as the police or the relevant local authority).

Any person from within Rugby all-stars who has allegations made against them shall be treated fairly. All enquiries, investigations and decisions taken shall be just and fair, with the safety of any child concerned at the heart of the process.

For most activities and events, our procedure for supervision of children is as follows:

For groups of children up to 12 there will be one staff member, anything over 12+ two staff members.

Where we hold any events or activities whereby a child attends alongside their parent or guardian, parents and guardians should ensure that children are properly supervised.

Managing behaviour of children Generally

Whenever any adult engaged by us is faced with challenging or inappropriate behaviour from a child or with conflict between children, they must:

- Treat each child fairly and equally
- Approach the situation in a calm and neutral manner
- Only ever use physical restraint/intervention in order to protect the immediate safety of a person, for example to prevent an injury or harm either the child or others - Wherever it is justified to physically restrain a child or to physically intervene, the amount of force used should be kept to the absolute minimum taking into account the risk posed.
- Make a written record on the incident and ensure this is reported appropriately to the safeguarding office.

Managing risks posed by other children

It is important for all adults engaged by us to recognise that children can face harm from their peers. This can commonly take the form of bullying. Bullying can be defined as any behaviour which is:

- Repeated; and
- Has the intention of hurting somebody either physically or emotionally

Bullying can sometimes be motivated by prejudices based on certain groups, for example gender, race, religion or sexual orientation. Bullying can often include:

- Physical harm perpetrated against another child
- Name calling and threats
- Cyberbullying (threats and abusive comments made via technology)

Any instance of bullying or concern relation to possible bullying between children at any event or activities arranged by us will usually be dealt with by us in the first instance as follows:

All children and any relevant staff shall be spoken to individually to ascertain facts. Where appropriate, children will receive a first warning and relevant support/education. Where any behaviour amounting to bullying continues following this, the following steps will be taken:

The child or children who have been found to be responsible for behaviour which amounts to bullying of another child shall be banned from attending the premises.

All steps in relation to the prevention or management of bullying should be taken in consultation with the safeguarding officer.

Photography

Our photographs

On some occasions, we may take photographs featuring children. We recognise that photography of children carries risks, such as:

- The potential for images to be reused, shared or adapted in a damaging or inappropriate manner
- The general risk of sharing images and the impact this could have on child's public image as they grow older

In view of these risks we will:

- Always ask for written permission from a child and their parent/guardian before taking and sharing any image of them
- Always ensure that a child and their parent/guardian are properly informed how an image will be used and shared
- Always ensure that a child's identity is protected as far as is possible within any published material.
- Ask that parents, guardians, children and any other person connected to them who may wish to share any of our published images which feature other children to refrain from doing so unless they have the permission of the other children and their parent/guardian
- Always store photos in accordance with our data protection policy

Member of the public

We ask that any members of the public attending our premises, events or activities do not take photographs.
